SPECIAL NOTES

1. Purchasers who are unable to collect their items on the day of the auction will need to make special arrangements with the auctioneers to collect any purchases. The Auctioneers are not available for collection other than by special arrangement with our office. Our auction office is attended from 9am to 2pm Monday to Friday on Wisbech 01945 584200. Purchasers will need to take a receipted invoice with them to ensure that any goods purchased are released. Any goods left by the purchaser following the day of the auction are stored for free by the auctioneers, but it is entirely for the purchaser to make their own arrangements with regard to insurance over for damage or theft.
2. Purchasers who leave commission bids and subsequently ask the auctioneers to send the same to an address of their choosing are advised that the auctioneers will make a charge for postage, packing and administration which will be added to the commission already paid. It will be for the purchaser to decide upon the best postage method to suit their requirements and to give the auctioneers their clear instruction accordingly. The auctioneers are happy to provide this service, but take no responsibility whatsoever for any damage or loss incurred as a result of such action being taken.

NOTICES

CLIFFORD CROSS AUCTIONS LTD., in these Notices and Conditions of Sale called 'the Auctioneers', for themselves and for the seller of each lot, whose agent the Auctioneers are, hereby give notice to all persons taking part in any Auction that:

I. THE MAKING OF ANY BID WILL BE TREATED AS ACCEPTANCE BY THE BIDDER OF THE CONDITIONS OF SALE.

2. While care is taken to ensure that all statements as to authenticity, attribution, origin, date, age, provenance, quality and condition in the Auctioneers catalogues, advertisements and other literature are accurate and reliable, such statements are statements of opinion only and are not to be taken to be or as implying statements or representations of fact. PROSPECTIVE BUYERS MUST RELY UPON INDEPENDENT ADVICE AND/OR THEIR OWN JUDGMENT AS TO ALL SUCH MATTERS.
3. An Auctioneers' fee of 18% (plus VAT) of the highest bid price of any lot is payable by the buyer to the Auctioneers for their own retention.
4. Buyers DO NOT pay Value Added Tax on items purchased at auction sales UNLESS the item has been entered in the sale by a seller who is registered for V.A.T. purposes. Buyers are not, however, required to pay V.A.T. on items entered by such a seller if the seller satisfies that certain conditions set out by H.M. Customs & Excise in Notice No. 712 and if the items fall into one of the following categories:
 - (a) Paintings, drawings and pastels, executed by hand:
 - (b) Original engravings, prints and lithographs:

 - (d) Antiques of any age, exceeding one hundred years, except loose pearls and loose gem stones:
 - (e) Collections and Collectors' pieces of zoological, botanical, mineralogical, anatomical, historical, archaeological, palaeontological or ethnographic interest:
5. Lots upon which a buyer will be required to pay V.A.T. as an addition to the highest bid price are prefixed by an asterisk in the Catalogue. Any lot without an asterisk so prefixed but subject to V.A.T. will be announced when the particular lot is put up for sale.
6. While every effort is made to ensure correct description the Auctioneers give no warranties and can only take up (without prejudice and without accepting responsibility) any complaints that are received before the Vendor has been paid and in any event within 7 days of the sale whichever period is the shorter.
7. It will be necessary for intending Purchasers to complete an Auction Bidder's Registration form (which will be enclosed with this catalogue). A MEANS OF IDENTIFICATION MUST BE SHOWN AT THE TIME OF REGISTRATION. On arrival at the Sale Room, the completed form must be handed in at the Registration Desk and intending Purchasers will be issued a numbered card which must be shown to the Auctioneer when making a purchase.

End of Sale

NEXT ANTIQUE AND COLLECTORS' SALE – 13TH AND 14TH JULY, 2017

CONDITIONS OF SALE

I. In the Conditions:

'The Auctioneers' means Clifford Cross Auctions Ltd.

'The highest bid price' means the price determined by the fall of the hammer or, in the case of any dispute, otherwise determined by the Auctioneers under Condition 2 below;

'The Auctioneers' fee' means the fee payable by the buyer to the Auctioneers under Condition 7 below'

'The total price' means the aggregate of the highest bid price, the Auctioneers' fee and V.A.T.

chargeable on the Auctioneers' fee and any VAT, chargeable on the highest bid price;

'The Auction premises' means the saleroom and/or the other premises or any part thereof where the auction is held by the Auctioneers or any other premise of the Auctioneers;

2 The highest bidder, if in due time, shall be the buyer but without prejudice to the Auctioneers' right in their absolute discretion and without giving any reason therefore to refuse the bidding of any person or persons. If any dispute arises as to any bidding or the best bidding the Auctioneers shall have absolute discretion to settle such dispute and to put any such disputed lot up again to be resold.

3. The Auctioneers reserve the right of bidding for, withdrawing, consolidating, dividing and altering the order of any lot or lots.

4. No person may offer a bid or an advance bidding in a sum less than such sum as may be fixed from time to time by the Auctioneers. The Auctioneers shall have absolute discretion in all matters appertaining to the bidding.

5. All lots are put up for sale subject to any reserve price imposed by the seller.

6. The Auctioneers act as agents only except in their retention of the Auctioneers' fee.

7. The buyer of any lot shall pay the Auctioneers' fee of 18% (plus VAT) on the highest bid price.

8. Immediately any lot is sold the buyer shall:

(i) Notify the buyer's name and permanent address to the Auctioneers and

(ii) Provide satisfactory bank and/or other references if payment is to be made by cheque.

(iii) Pay the whole of the total price including commission and all V.A.T.

NO CHEQUES WILL BE ACCEPTED AS PAYMENT WITHOUT SUCH REFERENCES. In the event of any noncompliance by a buyer with or under this Condition the lot or lots purchased may be put up again and resold whereupon if the highest bid price upon such a resale is less than that originally payable by the buyer he shall be liable to pay the difference to the Auctioneers. Then Auctioneers shall have absolute discretion in all matters required by or pursuant to this Condition.

9. All lots are sold as shown, with all faults, imperfections and errors of description and neither the Auctioneers nor any seller are responsible for errors of description or for genuineness or authenticity of any lot, or for any faults or defects therein, howsoever caused. No warranties or representations whatever are intended to be, or are to be taken as made or given to any buyer by the Auctioneers or any seller in respect of any lot, nor has any person in the employ of the Auctioneers any authority to make or give any warranty or representation whatever in respect of any lot, and any implied conditions, warranties or representations, statutory or otherwise. (with the exception of those implied under Section 12 of the Sale of Goods Act 1893 as amended) are hereby excluded.

10. The property in a lot purchased shall not pass to the buyer until he/she has paid the total price in full to the Auctioneers, nevertheless any lot purchased shall be at the sole risk of the buyer from the fall of the hammer. The Auctioneers shall not be liable in relation to any lot in their custody for any loss or damage caused either wholly or in part by negligence, defaults or breach of duty of the Auctioneers, their servants or agents or any other person or persons for whose action they may be responsible.

11. Except in so far as any special arrangement may have been made with the Auctioneers prior to the day on which a lot is sold, the buyer shall pay the total price in full to the Auctioneers and remove the lot purchased with all faults, imperfections or errors of description at the buyer's risk and expense from the Auction Premises on the day of the sale; no lot will be allowed to be removed from the Auction Premises without payment of the total price in full having been made. The Auctioneers shall not have any liability for any lot purchased remaining upon the premises after the sale.

12. If the buyer of any lots fails to pay the total price to the Auctioneers or fails to remove any lot purchased from the Auction Premises or other the place of storage the seller or the Auctioneers in their absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other right or remedies may rescind the sale whereupon any monies paid by' the buyer in part payment may be treated as forfeited or the lot may be resold on behalf of the seller either by auction or privately with or without notice to the buyer.

13. In the event of any failure of the buyer to comply with any of the above Conditions the damages recoverable by the seller or the Auctioneers from the buyer shall include but not be limited to any loss arising on any resale of the lot. together with the charges and expenses in respect of both the sale and any resale and any money deposited in part payment may be applied by the Auctioneers on account of any liability of the buyer to the seller or the Auctioneers.

14. Nothing in the above Conditions shall prejudice the right of the seller or the Auctioneers in their absolute discretion upon any default by the buyer to treat the sale as still subsisting and to act accordingly.
